

Assalamu Alaikum Parents/Guardians,

We hope this letter reaches you in the best of faith and health. We welcome you back to another exciting year at Alfirdaus College.

The Halaqa program at Alfirdaus College is a student led program that aims to build Taqwah (God consciousness) in students by providing them with tools taught through the Quran and Sunnah to overcome challenges experienced within the western context. It also aims to holistically address different aspects of student wellbeing by providing them with a safe learning space to learn from one another.

The 2023 Halaqa program will focus on stories of the Prophets, the Seerah, life of the companions and lessons regarding Islamic identity and upholding an Islamic lifestyle.

Term 1 2023 topics will include exploring lesson derived from the story of Prophet Adam AS:
