

ISLAMIC EVENT WEEK

5th June 2023

Assalamu Alaikum Parents/Guardians,

We hope this letter reaches you in the best of faith and health.

We are excited to announce our first Biannual Islamic Event Week (IEW)!

IEW is focused on delivering engaging, impactful and enjoyable Islamic Studies lessons outside the regular classroom setting. This is an initiative that will be taking place in Week 10 of Term 2 (week starting 3rd July 2023) and Week 10 of Term 4 (week starting 11th December 2023).

A core objective of IEW is to keep students motivated to learn about Allah SWT and Islam by ensuring that the learning is fun and beneficial. IEW will replace teaching classes with learning experiences! So instead of students attending class on their regular day and time at their centre, they will be required to attend their age appropriate IEW sessions.

The first IEW will be held at the end of this term (Term 2). Please see the timetable below for details:

SO WHATS THE FIRST ISLAMIC EVENT WEEK ABOUT...

In an effort to signify to our students the importance of knowing Allah SWT in our daily lives and subsequently encouraging them to form a strong connection with our Creator, our theme for our Term 2 IEW is "Knowing Allah SWT and The Purpose of Life". The week will include a variety of programs that will focus on this topic and will provide our students with relevant knowledge catered towards their age group, including an exciting lesson, special local and international guests, competitions with prizes, and an educational take home item.

Exciting news - An international speaker from the USA will be presenting at our teenage and adults sessions!
